The Chairman asked whether there were any questions from the shareholders.

Nuttakit Sunthornbura, a shareholder inquired from the consolidated financial statements of 200 million baht, what items were used to invest?

Chief Financial Officer, explained the investment budget is applied to the construction of a social security building at Vichaivej Hospital International Omnoi, which is expected to open in 2021.

Chalita Trikittinurak, a shareholder In 2019, How is the bed occupancy rate for each branch of the hospital?

Mongkon Wanitphakdeedecha M.D., M.Sc., explained the bed occupancy rate is constantly changing over time. Overall, all branch of hospitals have a relatively good bed occupancy rates. The average is approximately 60-70 percent of the total number of beds. In practice, the high bed occupancy rate is in the patients of Social Security ward. In 2020 the epidemic of coronavirus, the hospital affected by the situation because the patients were afraid to come to the hospital. This resulted in a significant decrease in the rate of bed occupancy for both Social Security and the general patient. And the service in some wards has to be closed, so the Company takes this opportunity to manage the cost reduction as well.

Thitipat Trikittinurak, a shareholder inquired income from COVID-19 testing and treatment received from the NHSO is how much per capita income? What is the profit margin? And this income varies according to the difficulty of treatment and when income from the NHSO receive actual payments from the state?

Mongkon Wanitphakdeedecha M.D., M.Sc., said that It is the policy established by the NHSO to manage with the COVID-19 situation, which the NHSO has set a channel for the hospital to accept COVID-19 patients who are Thai and have the NHSO right to receive regular treatment. If you have other diseases, the hospital is required to take care and reimburse expenses to NHSO according to the UC system, the rate of UC is relatively low. But the COVID-19 is called UCEP- COVID-19, which the government has designated as a special case. It can be reimbursed in the UCEP system as in the case of emergency cases. And has a higher rate than the UC system and the income from NHSO, the hospital will receive payment from the government approximately 2-3 months.
